

Dalhousie First Day Digital Program

Dalhousie University has partnered with Willo Labs to help our students have digital convenience while ensuring students can access their course materials at the lowest available price when using the Dalhousie First Day Digital Program.

To learn more about how you can help your students save money and have immediate access to their course materials, please reach out to:

Judy Davidson Judy.Davidson@dal.ca

Danielle Brown danielle.brown@dal.ca

Health Sciences: Jim Regan jim.regan@dal.ca

Instant Access

Student Savings

Brightspace Integration

Data Privacy

Instant Access with One Click:

- Day 1 Access to digital materials with Dalhousie First Day Digital Program.
- Students purchase from the campus bookstore or online through your Brightspace course.
- No Access Codes, No Registrations or Logins.
- Increased student affordability and savings.
- 14 days of free eBook access

Data Privacy:

- Willo Labs is the industry leader in protecting student data using encryption that exceeds industry standards.
- No student data leaves the institution which means no 3rd party gets access to any student data. Ever.

Brightspace Integrated Materials:

- Manage, Organize and customize all learning materials for your students by keeping them in your Brightspace course shell.
- Easy set up for the First Day Digital Program in Brightspace with just a few clicks!
- Students purchase and access their learning materials through instructors Brightspace course shell.
- Request access to Willo in Brightspace, by emailing intech@dal.ca